About Salvation

What we believe: about Salvation

Salvation is entirely a work of God's grace and cannot be earned or deserved.

It has been accomplished by the Lord Jesus Christ and is offered to all in the gospel.

God in his love forgives sinners whom he calls, granting them repentance and faith.

All who believe in Christ are justified by faith alone, adopted into the family of God and receive eternal life.

Salvation is entirely a work of God's grace and cannot be earned or deserved.

Grace: God's unmerited favour

8 For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith - and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God - 9 not by works, so that no one can boast.

10 For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do. (Eph 2:7-10).

It has been accomplished by the Lord Jesus Christ and is offered to all in the gospel.

6 You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly.

7 Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous man, though for a good man someone might possibly dare to die. 8 But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through him!

(Romans 5:6–9)

It has been accomplished by the Lord Jesus Christ and is offered to all in the gospel.

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.
(John 3:16)

As the Scripture says, “Anyone who trusts in him will never be put to shame.” 12 For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him, 13 for, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.” (Romans 10:11–13)

36 “Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ.”

37 When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?”

38 Peter replied, “Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call. (Acts 2: 36-39)

18 When they heard this, they had no further objections and praised God, saying, "So then, God has granted even the Gentiles repentance unto life." (Acts 11:18)

48 When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and honored the word of the Lord; and all who were appointed for eternal life believed. (Acts 13:48)

All who believe in Christ are justified by faith alone, adopted into the family of God and receive eternal life.

For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from observing the law. (Romans 3:28)

That I may gain Christ, and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith. (Philippians 3:8–9)

All who believe in Christ are justified by faith alone, adopted into the family of God and receive eternal life.

He predestined us to be adopted as his sons through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will— 6 to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves (Eph 1:5–6)

Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, 14 who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory. (Eph 1:13–14)
